

WORLD TEQBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS 2023 BANGKOK

COACH CODE OF CONDUCT AND ACCREDITATION POLICY

1. Introduction:

The World Teqball Championships 2023 in Bangkok aims to maintain the highest standards of professionalism, sportsmanship, and fair play. Coaches, being pivotal contributors to the event, are required to adhere to a comprehensive code of conduct and accreditation policy to ensure the smooth and respectful conduct of matches and contribute to the positive atmosphere of the championship.

2. Coach Accreditation:

Coach Accreditation can only be obtained during designated accreditation hours. Specific details can be found in the Event guide on fiteq.org.

Only coaches with valid Coach Accreditation are permitted next to the Field of Play (FoP) during their team's matches, in accordance with their registration.

No person is allowed to enter the coaching box after the Coin Toss procedure of a match.

3. Adherence to Rules and Regulations:

Coaches are expected to strictly adhere to The Official Rules and Regulations of Teqball. Coaches must remain within the designated coaching box/coaching zone throughout the match, including breaks between sets, warm-up, or time-outs. Re-entry to the coaching box is not permitted once a coach leaves.

Coaches must refrain from talking or providing instructions to their athlete/team during rallies.

4. Sportsmanship and Celebration:

Coaches are encouraged to celebrate and motivate their teams in a manner that upholds the spirit of fair play (Spirit of the Game).

Coaches must embody the values of teqball and consistently demonstrate respect towards officials, other players, and spectators.

5. Clothing and Equipment Regulations:

Coaches must adhere to the clothing and equipment regulations outlined below.

5.1 National Clothing:

- Coaches are strongly encouraged to wear official team uniforms or attire representative of their national identity.
- Official team uniforms should be worn during official matches, team meetings, and any other championship-related events.

5.2 Neat and Professional Appearance:

- Coaches must maintain a neat and professional appearance at all times.
- Clothing should be clean, free of wrinkles, and in good condition.

5.3 Footwear:

- Sneakers or sports shoes are mandatory to wear during the competition.

5.4 Logos and Sponsorship:

- Coaches are allowed to wear clothing with small and discrete logos representing their national federation or team sponsors.
- The display of commercial logos, political symbols, or any offensive content is strictly prohibited.

5.5 Attire Recommendations:

- During the qualifiers stages on Day 1, 2, 3, coaches are advised to wear official team uniforms or attire representative of their national identity.
- For the broadcasted matches on Day 4, 5, coaches are recommended to wear business casual attire or official team uniforms that reflect their national identity.

6. Post-Match Responsibilities:

After matches, coaches are responsible for ensuring that the coaching box is kept clean and free from any litter, such as bottles, towels, or snack packaging.

7. Electronic Devices and Communication:

The use of electronic devices or communication tools by coaches during matches is strictly prohibited unless explicitly permitted by the event organizers for specific purposes. Coaches must refrain from talking or providing instructions to their athlete/team during rallies.

8. Enforcement and Penalties:

Violation of any of the above guidelines may result in penalties, including fines, suspension, or other measures deemed necessary by the Competition Team.

9. Conclusion:

This policy is designed to ensure the integrity and smooth operation of the World Teqball Championships 2023 in Bangkok. Coaches are expected to familiarize themselves with and abide by these guidelines for the duration of the event.

This policy is subject to change at the discretion of FITEQ. Any updates will be communicated promptly to all participating teams and coaches.
