Accommodation

We recommend to choose a hotel or AirBnB in the city center. From the city center you can easily take the U1 in the direction of “Farmsen” or “Berne” and walk 10 min to the venue.

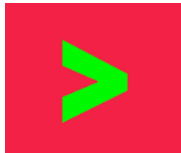

The city center is nicer to hang out and you have a lot more possibilities what you can visit/see then in Wandsbek.

Public transport to the venue

The station which is only a 10min walk from the venue is called „Wandsbeker Markt“

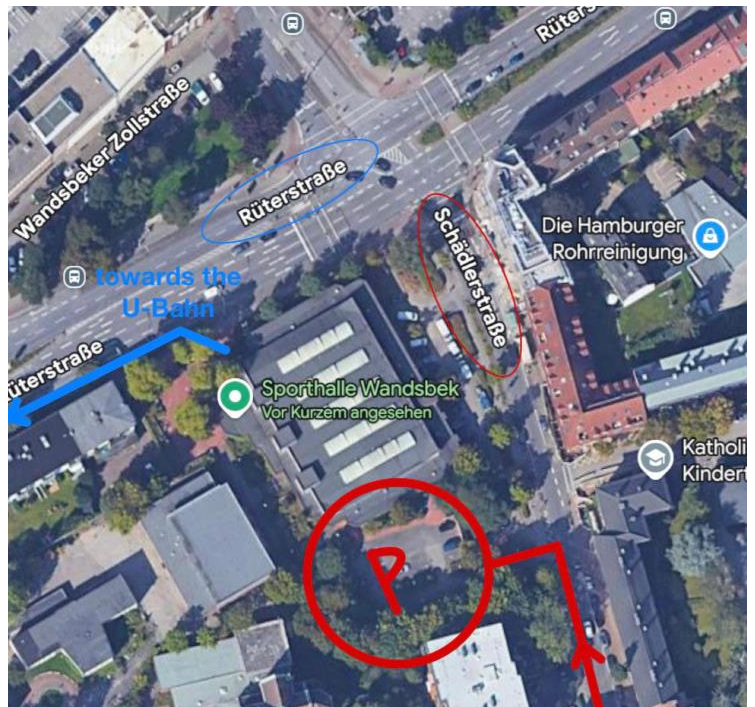

The U1 (subway, blue line) is going there. You can use Google Maps or the hvv App for orientation. The hvv App is also useful to buy tickets on an easy way.

Car to the venue

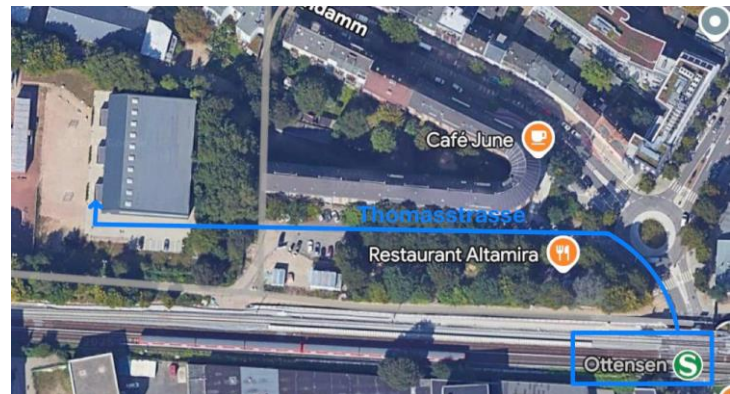

The address of the venue is Rüterstrasse 75, but if you come by car, you have to come from the „Schädlerstraße“. You can find a parking spot on the left hand side (it's a ramp upwards, red marked P on the picture)

Training on 6th November/Thursday

Time: 18:30 – 23:00

This will take place at another hall at the Thomasstraße. You can easily arrive there with the S1 to the station „Ottensen“. Please use this link for navigation there <https://maps.app.goo.gl/TniEoJBX1MLJmb1T9> It's a schoolyard and you just go through the gate along the wall. Then you will find a door where you will find us. There are 3 Teq Lites and changing rooms with showers. You could also come by car, just call before you arrive so we can open the gate (if it is not open).

Other events/attractions on this weekend

On Friday evening the famous „Hamburger Dom“ will open (until 7th December). It's a funfair with a lot of good food and attractions like rollercoasters and things like this. On the weekend it can get really crowded but it has a good atmosphere. It's located on the Heiligengeistfeld next to the St. Pauli stadium.

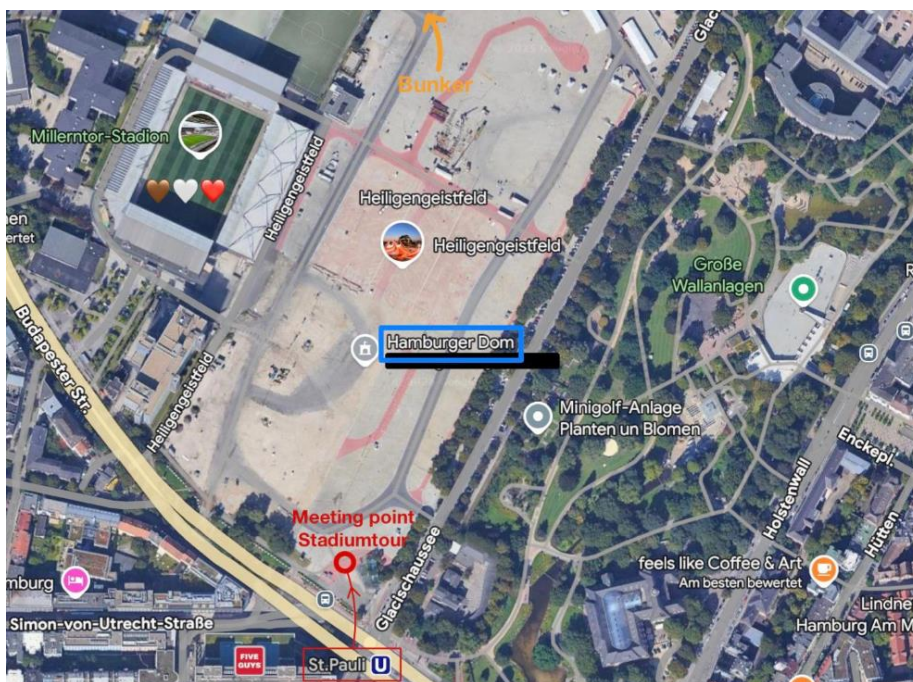

Also next to the Heiligengeistfeld is the famous St. Pauli Bunker. It was built during the second world war to protect people of St. Pauli. Today, you can walk up there for free and you will have an amazing 360° view.

The Elbphilharmonie is located at the Elbe river. You can visit its so-called Plaza for free and you will have a nice view on the harbour. You can't visit the inside concert/opera hall, but it is still very worthy to go there. From there you can walk to the Landungsbrücken, eat a Fischbrötchen and visit the Elbtunnel which is tunnel under the Elbe river. You will end up on the other side of the river and will see the Hamburg skyline.

For partying/dancing you can visit the Reeperbahn. It's a street with a lot of entertainment and a redlight-district area. If you prefer a calmer atmosphere, but still want to have a drink, visit the area Sternschanze or St. Pauli and just let the colorful streets lead you.

If you need any tips or there are questions left, just write a message and ask for advice.
